Work Experience

Campus Patrol

University of Kings College - Halifax, NS
September 2018 to March 2020

While at university, I worked as campus patrol. The job included doing rounds of the campus, responding to emergencies both found and called in, monitoring campus events, and ensuring that students remained safe and within the school regulations. Our primary goal was student safety, physically and emotionally, so we offered both first aid and peer support around the clock. Position was staffed 24 hours a day, with shifts split into 4 and 8 hour stints.

Deli Worker and Cashier

Grateful Deli - Aspen, CO
May 2017 to August 2019

Worked summers making sandwiches and interacting with customers for two summers at a small, locally owned deli.

Bike Mechanic and Sales

Basalt Bike and Ski
May 2017 to August 2017

Bike shop employee

● Responsibilities included: building and fixing bikes, selling equipment, cleaning up, managing orders and delivery, and opening/closing the shop.

Student Resident Assistant

Upper Canada College - Toronto, ON
September 2016 to May 2017

Managing the front desk of the boarding house, reminding students of the noise and light curfews, doing rounds of the facilities, light maintenance when required, first aid if need, and generally solving issues as they arose.

Camp Counselor

Camp George - Muskoka, ON
June 2016 to August 2016

Acted as counselor and staff member. Duties included: Managing cabins of campers ages 8-15 daily at a summer camp, running activities for cabins, planning large events (such as the camp-wide colour war), taking the cabin on canoe and hiking trips, and generally making sure the kids had a fun summer while still returning home in one piece

Education
